Holy Week 2009

April 4-12
Holy Week

Dear Friend,

Our journey of forty days in faith and attentiveness in the company of Jesus is almost done.

But the important part
is still to be accomplished:
to be there and not to falter when Jesus accepts the consequences of always and only doing the will of his heavenly Father.

In his best years, just 33,
He did not think himself to be too young to give his all into the care of His loving God:
his life, his mission,
his love for his mother and his friends,
those who are seeking, the lost, the despairing, the hopeful.

Jesus celebrated his human life, by being present in love and compassion to his friends as well as to those he met on the way.
He restored the lives of many,
so that they, too, would praise the giver of life.

His Resurrection is Jesus' ultimate sign of God, the source and giver of all life.

Wishing you the courage to die to self and the hope to rise to abundant life in Christ Jesus!

Your Sisters Agathe and Veronica Marie, SSps
