

DISCERNMENT PRAYER

God, Holy Spirit, I am grateful for your daily call to life with you and for the gift of your love. I ask you to help me to open my heart for your voice within, that I will better understand my gifts and find ways to share them with others.

You are always with us. I ask for your assistance in discovering those talents that are still hidden deeply within, waiting only to be brought to light with your tender love.

Holy Spirit, you are the perfect guide of my life. Lead me to those places in my heart where lie all the possibilities that you set before me. Guide me in responding to your love.

Strengthen my commitment in your service, O Holy Spirit, that I will always choose those paths that lead to focusing more on the needs of others rather than my own desires.

Giver of all gifts, assist me in sharing all I have received from you with those who are waiting in the darkness of sin and the night of unbelief for your light and grace.

Ever present God in our midst, support me in my desires of making your presence more visible in the world through my faithfulness to your calling.
